It is very sad there are so many needy people incapable of supporting themselves. Are organizations working to fix problems or just symptoms of underlying causes? I predict the more homeless assisted, the more homeless and the more those in need of assistance will result, And the more such the state is likely to attract. The homeless and needy get drawn to Los Angeles.

Could rampant use of Marijuana be leading to unmotivated unambitious unproductive uncaring lackadaisical, behavior? Something is wrong. Find the cause.

There becomes a greater need for rehabilitating disabled, motivating the able to produce, to contribute to the community and become independent, support themselves instead of being dependent and becoming a burden to society. Some inspiration is needed.

Earnest prayer, repentence is also needed.

It is about more than funding and locating.
